The Shrinking Man - Wikipedia
Richard Matheson's "The Incredible Shrinking Man" is an engrossing novella of the sci-fi/horror persuasion, and although published in the 1950s it still holds up well today. The story alternates between protagonist Scott Carey's deteriorating home life due to his unprecedented shrinkage—not that sort of shrinkage!—and his present-day peril, marooned in the cellar and struggling to survive, the size of an ant.
